

The Kennet Project

The Short Boat Kennet is one of the last unconverted boats which worked on the Leeds & Liverpool Canal and is on the National Register of Historic Vessels. It has displays about the Leeds & Liverpool in its hold and travels the length of the canal to events, festivals and organizations where it is open to the public free of charge.

Kennet is owned and cared for by The Leeds & Liverpool Canal Society

- The Leeds & Liverpool Canal Society's goal is to retain the integrity of Kennet as an historic craft promoting the heritage and traditions of the canal.
- The hull requires conserving and the cargo space updating, for exhibitions and events.
- Training sessions in boat handling and other facets of canal life are planned.

Become a Friend of Kennet

- The Friends of Kennet has been formed to support the movement and maintenance of Kennet for it to continue being open to the public.
- Have you a skill or would like to learn one and while joining a friendly bunch.
- The Leeds & Liverpool Canal Society has already invested some £5000 and 1260 man hours in Kennet, but requires further funds for the annual running costs so that they can continue to use it in promoting the Canal's Heritage.
- Would you like to become a sponsor or donate? - It costs a minimum of £100 per week to keep Kennet afloat and it will cost in excess of £50k to secure Kennet's future.
