

Photography Competition

to source pictures for

2016 Leeds & Liverpool Canal Calendar

Celebrating the 200th Anniversary of the Completion of the Canal

The Leeds & Liverpool Canal Society is holding this photographic competition which is open to all amateur photographers. There are 6 categories with 2 winners from each category.

All pictures are to feature the Leeds & Liverpool Canal based on the following categories:

- Heritage
- Wild Life
- Leisure
- Boating
- Canal Infrastructure
- Humorous

All pictures are to suit a landscape format.

Prizes

The overall winner's picture will be used on the cover and will receive 6 Canal Heritage Books and a Leeds & Liverpool Canal Society Sweatshirt.

The photographers of the 12 pictures used in the Calendar will each receive 3 Canal Heritage books

Entries

Entries can be either a print of professional quality (minimum size – A5) or a digital file with a print resolution 1800 pixels x 1200 pixels (300dpi) or at least 1MB.

Each entry is to be accompanied with name, address, tel. no., where the picture was taken and the category (or categories – maximum of 2 for each entry)

Each person may enter up to 12 entries.

Please send your entries in one of the following ways:

- Email as attachments (up to 8 MB per email) to leeds.liverpool.canal.soc@gmail.com
- By Post in a Ridged Envelope to L&LCS, 2016 Calendar, c/o 2 Cross Lane Mill, Bradley, BD20 9QB

Competition closes on 15th September 2015 and the Winners will be notified during week commencing 5rd October 2015 and publicised on the Societies Web Site - <http://www.llcs.org.uk/>

Please Note

As well as featuring in the calendar, your photo entries will help us to promote the 200th Anniversary of the completion of the Leeds & Liverpool Canal in 2016 along with the Societies' future marketing and promotional material, by allowing us to use of the photos (including in a modified form). Photos will be credited where possible.

Please see the following full photography terms and conditions.

Photography Sharing Terms and Conditions

The Leeds and Liverpool canal society thanks you for taking part in the competition and donating your images for us to use on, but not limited solely to, our website and publicity material. Please take a moment to read the notes below.

Your Agreement

In sending your images, by all methods to the Leeds & Liverpool Canal Society (L&LCS), you are agreeing to L&LCS making free use of such images in whole or in part as required. The Society will not give other parties permission for use of such images without your agreement apart from for editorial use accompanying the Society's press releases.

If you wish to impose any restriction on L&LCS use of the images you would like to contribute, please email: leeds.liverpool.canal.soc@gmail.com

You must ensure that all material supplied is your own work.

It is best practice to gain verbal consent from an activity participant and, if under 18, their parent or carer before taking any photos of them. When submitting a photograph featuring a child, please provide written consent from a parent of that child.

You must not use images from other websites or scan other people's material. This may be a criminal offence and L&LCS takes no responsibility for the upload of copyright protected material. Any images that are found to have breached copyright or are deemed unsuitable for use will be destroyed and the Association reserves the right to comply with requests from copyright holders to provide contact details of any user who supplies material that L&LCS has reason to believe is otherwise copyright.